

GALLIVANT

February 8, 2014

The Mark

First opening its doors in 1927, the Mark New York is one of the Big Apple's premier destinations. Located at the end of 77th Street and Madison Avenue, guests will discover a highly luxurious travel experience that simply cannot be beaten anywhere else.

Recently undergoing a complete transformation, the Mark New York has been given a contemporary and stylish face-lift. Inside, state of the art technology has been merged seamlessly with avant-garde design with the highest levels of service possible.

Each of the guestrooms and suites at the Mark New York has been designed with careful attention to detail. Because of this, no detail has been overlooked, resulting in an contemporary elegant space in which guests can retire to.

With a variety of different guestrooms to choose from, guests will enjoy comfortable furnishings, with high quality bedding and linens. Cool, neutral colors on the walls and large windows create a light-filled room. State of the art technological luxuries can be found, including wireless internet and plasma screen televisions.

Bathrooms are beautiful spaces, visions in black and white marble with luxurious fittings and fine Egyptian cotton textiles.

Reserving the Mark Premier Two Bedroom Suite ensures you will be staying in one of the most stunning suites in New York. Sweeping views of the Upper East Side, Central Park and Manhattan are yours to enjoy from the comfort of either your two bedrooms.

Dining at the Mark New York is a truly remarkable experience. In the Mark Restaurant, you will dine on exceptional cuisine in a stylishly elegant setting. The highly acclaimed chef has created a menu featuring creative and inspiring dishes that reflect the air of sophistication found throughout the rest of the hotel.

Ideal after a hard day of business or exploration of the city, the Mark Bar provides an energetic and stylish venue for guests and locals to sample a wide variety of fine wines, spirits and champagnes.

Situated in one of New York's finest neighborhoods, guests staying at the Mark New York will discover a world of luxury and comfort that they may find themselves not wishing to leave.

