The Mark: Tradition, French Design and Exclusivity

February 2013

Tradition, French design and exclusivity

The Mark

Located on New York's Upper East Side in a beautiful 1927 landmark building, The Mark Hotel is housed at the corner of Madison Avenue and 77th Street. In 2009 The Mark was completely reimagined and given new life and identity for the 21st century. The Mark combines old-world comfort, avant-garde design, up-to-the-minute technologies and an unprecedented level of personal service.

Drawing on the expertise of an extraordinary group of talents - foremost among them the designer Jacques Grange, Michelin three star chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten, the world's most celebrated hairstylist Frédéric Fekkai and visionary hotel manager Olivier Lordonnois - The Mark hotel is the new beacon of high French style, immaculate service and American technology and comfort.

Located in the heart of the Upper East Side, a few blocks south of Carnegie Hill, The Mark is only one block from Central Park, and within short walking distance of The Metropolitan Museum, The Whitney, The Guggenheim, The Frick Collection, Neue Galerie New York, and The Cooper-Hewitt, among other fine institutions. Surrounded by all the best designer boutiques, restaurants and bars, this Upper East Side address is the most coveted location in all of Manhattan.
