

THE METRO PERSPECTIVE

you have one face. Invest well

July 30, 2013

The Mark Hotel Partners with Bergdorf Goodman to Give Guests 24/7 Access to Personal Shoppers at the Iconic Store

By Cameron Scott Lee

Need a last minute Louboutin or Manolo Blahnik to go with that dress you got? You better check yourself in at The Mark Hotel! The Mark Hotel New York announced its partnership with the iconic luxury retailer back in May. Regardless if guests at the hotel are actually using this service, the partnership itself has garnered much attention among the press and luxury travelers. I personally, am definitely planning a visit to the hotel when I'm in town later this year.

Grab a drink at the hotel bar while you wait for your items to arrive! Why not?

<http://themetroperspectiveblog.com/2013/07/30/the-mark-hotel-partners-with-bergdorf-goodman-to-give-guests-247-access-to-personal-shoppers-at-the-iconic-store/>

The fine print of this service is listed on The Mark's website: Access to Bergdorf Goodman 24/7 Bergdorf Goodman has opened its doors 24/7, exclusively for The Mark guests, providing limitless access to personal shoppers. Guests can call concierge and avail of a range of services from Bergdorf Goodman, including complimentary delivery to the hotel. The hotel's concierge team has a private phone line to Todd Okerstrom, director of personal shopping at Bergdorf Goodman.

Located on the Upper East Side of Manhattan, The Mark Hotel has 150 rooms and suites designed by Jacques Grange. Additional hotel services include 24-hour check-in, in-suite dining by Michelin-starred chef Jean-Georges Vongrichen and a Frederic Fekkai hair salon.

